the MOHEGAN TRIBE

SUMMER ON STAGE 2010

With the Missoula Children's Theatre

Prepare for the Garde Stage!

The Garde Arts Center and Missoula Children's Theater invite your child to participate in an unforgettable summer theater experience.

Your child will take classes in acting, movement, stagecraft makeup, and participate as actors, singers, dancers, stagehands, assistant directors and pianists in an original large-cast musical on the Garde stage.

KATE ESKRA FIORAVANTI Coordinator, Summer On Stage.

Kate brings years of educational and theatrical experience, teaching PK-12 and performing herself since she was a child. During the year, Fioravanti is the Arts Director and Head Teacher at the (ISAAC) Interdistrict School for Arts And Communication in New London. Under her direction and with Missoula and Garde faculty, SOS focuses on every child's self-expression and theatrical experience in a unique and innovative week like none other.

The Garde Arts Center and its educational division, the Garde Institute for Creativity, thanks all its donors and sponsors including: The Mohegan Tribe, General Dynamics/Electric Boat, The Community Foundation of Southeastern Connecticut, Lawrence and Memorial Hospital, Bank of America, Coca Cola Bottling Co. of SE New England, and Connecticut Commission on Culture and Tourism.
