The 2008 Tony award®-winner for best musical, best score, best choreography, and best orchestrations, tells the universal story of a vibrant community in Manhattan's Washington Heights – a place where the coffee from the corner bodega is light and sweet, the windows are always open, and the breeze carries the rhythm of three generations of music.

With a score that includes rap, hip-hop, salsa, meringue and more, In The Heights was created by actor-writer Lin-Manuel Miranda when he was a student at Wesleyan University in Connecticut, and honed at the Eugene O'Neill Theater Center.
